Crossing the Panama Canal is a dream for many travelers, marking a significant milestone in their global explorations. It's more than a passage; it's a voyage through history and geography, offering a sense of awe as your ship traverses the narrow strip of land that connects continents and divides oceans. Add in compelling ports like Bahamas, Costa Rica, Grand Cayman Islands and you're in for a terrific adventure to the most exotic and beautiful destinations on Earth.

February 7 DAY 1—SATURDAY | Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Today we depart for Fort Lauderdale. Upon your arrival in Fort Lauderdale, you will be transferred to your beach-front hotel, the B Ocean Resort. After you check in you will have the afternoon and evening at your leisure. Breakfast is included in your overnight stay.

February 8 DAY 2—SUNDAY | Fort Lauderdale, Florida Board the beautiful Holland America Rotterdam

Today you will be transported to the port to board the beautiful Holland America ship the Rotterdam! The rest of the day is yours to explore the ship. Ship sets sail at 4 pm.

February 9 DAY 3—MONDAY | Half Moon Cay, Bahamas

Relax Away, Half Moon Cay, a crescent-shaped private island, offers white-sand beaches, a turquoise lagoon and untouched nature. Renowned for its beauty and amenities, it's a highlight for Holland America guests seeking tranquility or adventure. Activities range from snorkeling and kayaking to simply relaxing on the beach, making it a perfect Caribbean retreat. (Arrives 9 am / Departs 5 pm)

February 10-11 DAY 4-5 | At Sea

February 12 DAY 6—THURSDAY | Willemstad, Curacao

Willemstad, the capital of Curaçao, is a vibrant city known for its historic Dutch-inspired buildings in pastel pink, blue, and yellow set against the Caribbean's azure waters. The city's UNESCO-listed center reflects a blend of cultural influences and architectural styles. Learn about the island's storied past at the Kura Hulanda Village, snorkel crystalline waters, and taste its signature liqueur. Enjoy an immersive and memorable visit to Willemstad with Holland America Line. (Arrives 8 am / Departs 11 pm)

February 13 DAY 7—FRIDAY | At Sea

Columbia

February 14 DAY 8—SATURDAY | Cartagena, Columbia

Cartagena is a fascinating locale, nearly surrounded by lagoons, bays and the Caribbean Sea. Visitors can stroll the streets of Old Town, the city's walled historic center, where they'll find vendors serving up treats like savory arepas and sweet guava jellies as well as notable architecture like the 17th-century Cloister, Museum and Church of San Pedro Claver. Art lovers should visit the Cartagena Museum of Modern Art, or take a trip to Getsemani, a hip neighborhood that's awash in street murals and displays. On tours that dig into Colombia's emerald history, a professional will show off the green gems and help you learn how to spot the real thing. Adventure seekers can excursion to the nearby town of La Boquilla, where you can canoe through mangroves to spot wildlife like egrets and pelicans, or venture to the white-sand shores of Manzanillo del Mar for a horseback ride on the beach. (Arrives 7 am / Departs 2 pm)

February 15 DAY 9—SUNDAY | Enter Panama Canal Cristobal

The Panama Canal's Atlantic gateway, Cristobal, is a testament to human ingenuity and perseverance. A Holland America voyage to Cristobal offers the opportunity to delve into the canal's storied history, from its colonial roots to the engineering feats that enable ships to traverse the narrow land bridge between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. Experience a narrative of ambition and courage, lush landscapes, and vibrant cultural traditions while traveling to Cristobal.

Cruising Panama Canal & Gatun Lake (Partial Transit)

The Panama Canal, an engineering marvel, offers a passage to a world of profound historical and cultural significance. On board Holland America's cruise through the famed waterway, you'll see the lush landscapes surrounding Gatun Lake and deepen your understanding of Panama City's storied past. From its sleek modern skyline to Casco Viejo's colonial charm, Panama City reveals layers of history, from the Spanish Crown's first Pacific city to a thriving metropolis and green spaces. This cruise promises explorers, history buffs, and nature lovers a journey filled with unparalleled experiences. (Arrives 6 am / Departs 3 pm)

Panama Canal

Colon Panama
